

CODE OF CONDUCT

Effective May 1, 2011 through April 30, 2012

Requirements on Club Days:

All students are responsible for coming prepared on Club Day with completed assignments in order to benefit fully from what is being offered. Assignments are designed to help students produce finished works and be ready for competition by November.

All club members are to exhibit a kind, polite and respectful attitude toward others at all times and to behave in a manner that brings glory and honor to God. Public display of affection at any club event (including tournaments) is cause for dismissal from ROC. Your behavior directly affects club members and we ask that you please forego flirting and romantic relationships.

All club members are required to stay within the geographical boundaries set by the administration of the facilities we use and are to strictly adhere to all established rules/regulations. Students must be in a classroom with other students being instructed by a parent/coach at all times during club. No loitering in halls or hanging out in empty classrooms. Visitors may be brought to club in extenuating circumstances but must be approved by the leadership at least forty-eight hours before club meeting.

Negative attention brought to the club by any student will not be tolerated because it reflects on the coaches, families and your teammates of ROC. If a student is disrespectful, uncooperative or disruptive, the student will be given one warning. If the behavior continues the leadership will consult with the parents. Habitual problems will result in dismissal from the club.

Mistakes will occur, but how they are dealt with is important. Conflicts will be resolved according to Matthew 18:15-17, whereby the offended goes "directly" to the offender to resolve the issue, refraining from gossip and rumor. If necessary, one or two board members will assist to resolve the matter.

Dress Code

The spirit of the dress code is modesty and professionalism with the intent to glorify Christ. The goal is to minimize the focus on the body or outward appearance and maximize the focus on the development of ideas and communication skills. Students should wear modestly fitted clothing. No t-shirts with offensive slogans, no tank tops, no midriiffs showing, no low-cut blouses, no short skirts or shorts.

I have read and understand the club requirements and dress code and agree to abide by them.
